

Local Public Management and Service Delivery: Life after NPM?

Panel Chairs:

Carmen Navarro, University Autonoma of Madrid, carmen.navarrog@gmail.com

Esther Pano, University of Barcelona, epano@ub.edu

Abstract

After the radical transformation of local public management that started in 1980s consisting of business inspired management and market liberalization, we have recently entered in a post-NPM period that has been only partially explored. In this period, we find indications of re-municipalization, together with other types of reforms, that include blending public and private service delivery in hybrid models of collaboration. The panel invites empirical contributions of this type of "new" experiences.

If you have a Paper you think might fit in this Panel, please contact the Panel Chairs before 15 February with the following information:

- Title of the paper (no more than 20 words)
- Abstract of the paper (no more than 250 words)
- Author's (and if applicable co-author's) email address as registered in their MyECPR account
- 3 – 5 keywords