The name of the Charitable Incorporated Organisation is The European Consortium for Political Research (ECPR).

2. National Location of Principal Office

The principal office of the ECPR is in England.

3. Interpretation

3.1 The interpretation provision in Clause 34 shall apply in this constitution.

3.2 The emboldening of a word or expression on the first occasion that it is used indicates that the word or expression is defined in Clause 34.

4. Objects

4.1 The Objects of the ECPR are to advance education and research for the public benefit by promoting the development of European political science, in particular (but without limitation) by:

4.1.1 fostering collaboration between universities and other institutions active in political research, teaching and training;

4.1.2 placing better facilities at the disposal of political scientists throughout Europe;

4.1.3 increasing the contacts between political scientists and their knowledge of each other’s research; and

4.1.4 making it easier for political scientists to engage in co-operative advanced research, training and research-led teaching.

4.2 Nothing in this constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the ECPR for purposes which are not charitable in accordance with section 2 of the Charities Act 2011, section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and section 2 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.
5. Powers

The ECPR has power to do anything which is calculated to further its Objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the ECPR's powers include but are not limited to the power to:

5.1 borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of its property as security for the repayment of the money borrowed. The ECPR must comply as appropriate with sections 124 and 125 of the Charities Act 2011 if it wishes to mortgage land;

5.2 buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;

5.3 sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the ECPR. In exercising this power, the ECPR must comply as appropriate with sections 117 and 119-123 of the Charities Act 2011;

5.4 employ and/or remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the ECPR. The ECPR may employ or remunerate a member of the Executive Committee only to the extent that it is permitted to do so by Clause 7.1 and provided it complies with the conditions of that Clause; and

5.5 deposit or invest funds, employ a professional fund-manager, and arrange for the investments or other property of the ECPR to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000.

6. Application of Income and Property

6.1 The income and property of the ECPR must be applied solely towards the promotion of its Objects.

6.1.1 A member of the Executive Committee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the ECPR or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the ECPR.

6.1.2 A member of the Executive Committee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the ECPR's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.

6.2 None of the income or property of the ECPR may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any Member of the ECPR or to any Official Representative. This does not prevent a Member or Official Representative who is not also a member of the Executive Committee receiving:

6.2.1 a benefit from the ECPR as a beneficiary of the ECPR;

6.2.2 reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the ECPR.

6.3 Nothing in this Clause shall prevent a member of the Executive Committee or connected person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by Clause 7.1.

7. Benefits and Payments to Executive Committee Members and Connected Persons

7.1 General Provisions

No member of the Executive Committee or connected person may:

7.1.1 buy or receive any goods or services from the ECPR on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public (including Affiliates);

7.1.2 sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the ECPR;

7.1.3 be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the ECPR;

7.1.4 receive any other financial benefit from the ECPR;

unless the payment or benefit is permitted by Clause 6, Clause 7.2, or authorised by the court or the Commission.

7.2 Scope and Powers Permitting Executive Committee Members’ or Connected Persons’ Benefits

7.2.1 A member of the Executive Committee or connected person may receive a benefit from the ECPR as a beneficiary of the ECPR.

7.2.2 A member of the Executive Committee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the ECPR where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 of the Charities Act 2011.

7.2.3 Subject to Clause 7.3 a member of the Executive Committee or connected person may provide the ECPR with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the ECPR by the member of the Executive Committee or connected person.

7.2.4 A member of the Executive Committee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the ECPR at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).

7.2.5 A member of the Executive Committee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the ECPR. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The member of the Executive Committee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.

7.2.6 A member of the Executive Committee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the ECPR on the same terms as members of the public (including Affiliates).

7.3 Payment for Supply of Goods Only – Controls

The ECPR and its Executive Committee may only rely upon the authority provided by Clause 7.2.3 if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

7.3.1 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in a written agreement between the ECPR and the member of the Executive Committee or connected person supplying the goods (supplier).

7.3.2 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.

7.3.3 The other members of the Executive Committee are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the ECPR to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a member of the Executive Committee or connected person. In reaching that decision the Executive Committee must balance the advantage of contracting with a member of the Executive Committee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.

7.3.4 The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the ECPR.
7.3.5 The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of the Executive Committee is present at the meeting.

7.3.6 The reason for their decision is recorded by the Executive Committee in the minute book.

7.3.7 A majority of the Executive Committee members then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by Clause 7.2.3.

7.4 Benefits from Third Parties

As specified in the General Regulations, no member of the Executive Committee or connected person may accept a benefit of any kind from a third party that is conferred by reason of his or her:

7.4.1 being a member of the Executive Committee; or

7.4.2 taking (or refraining from taking) any decision or action as a member of the Executive Committee; unless the acceptance of the benefit cannot reasonably be regarded as giving rise or likely to give rise to a conflict of interest or conflict of loyalty.

7.5 In this Clause 7:

7.5.1 "ECPR" includes any company in which the ECPR;

(a) holds more than 50% of the shares; or

(b) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or

(c) has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company.

7.5.2 "connected person" includes any person within the definition set out in Clause 34.

8. Conflicts of Interest and Conflicts of Loyalty

8.1 A member of the Executive Committee must:

8.1.1 declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the ECPR or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the ECPR which has not previously been declared; and
8.1.2 absent himself or herself from any discussions of the Executive Committee in which it is possible that a conflict of interests will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the ECPR and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest and/or any duties owed to any other organisation or third party).

8.2 Any member of the Executive Committee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with Clause 8.1.2 must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the Executive Committee on the matter.

9. Liability of Members to Contribute to the Assets of the ECPR if it is Wound Up

If the ECPR is wound up, the Members of the ECPR have no liability to contribute to its assets and no responsibility for settling its debts and liabilities.

10.3 Duty of Members

10.3.1 It is the duty of each Member of the ECPR to exercise their powers as a Member of the ECPR in the way they decide in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the ECPR.

(a) pay any Membership fees due to the ECPR promptly;

11. Members’ Decisions

Except for those decisions that must be taken in a particular way as indicated in Clause 11.4, decisions of the Members of the ECPR may be taken either by vote at a Council Meeting as provided in Clause 11.2 or by electronic vote as provided in Clause 11.3.

11.2 Taking Ordinary Decisions by Vote

Subject to Clause 11.4, any decision of the Members of the ECPR may be taken by means of a resolution at a Council Meeting. Such a resolution may be passed by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting (including proxy votes) in accordance with the provisions of Clause 12.

11.3 Taking Ordinary Decisions by Electronic Vote without a Council Meeting

11.3.1 Subject to Clause 11.4, the Executive Committee may permit the Members of the ECPR to take a decision by electronic vote on any matter that might otherwise be decided at a Council Meeting in accordance with the provisions of this Clause 11.3.

11.3.2 If the Executive Committee determines that an electronic vote shall be taken on any given matter, they shall not less than 21 days before the Closing Date send to the Official Representative of each Member eligible to vote:

(b) details of the Electronic Voting Procedure, which must specify the Closing Date and that any vote received after the Closing Date or that does not comply with the Electronic Voting Procedure will be invalid and will not be counted.

This information shall be sent either by post or electronically in accordance with the provisions of Clause 26.
11.3.3 A resolution taken by electronic vote and agreed by a simple majority of the votes cast shall be effective provided that:

(a) a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to the Official Representatives of all the Members eligible to vote;

(c) the total number of votes cast and received by the ECPR before the Closing Date represent not less than 30% of the Members eligible to vote on the resolution.

11.3.4 Eligibility to vote on the decision taken by electronic vote is limited to Members who are Members of the ECPR on the date when the proposal is first circulated in accordance with this Clause 11.3.

11.3.5 The Senior Returning Officer shall supervise the conduct of the electronic vote and the counting of votes.

11.3.6 Any dispute about the conduct of an electronic vote shall be referred initially to a panel established by the Speaker, to consist of two members of the Executive Committee and the Official Representatives of two of the Members. If the panel is unable to satisfactorily resolve the dispute, the matter shall be referred to the Speaker whose decision shall be final.

12. The Council

12.1 Types of Council Meeting

12.1.1 The general meetings of the Members of the ECPR shall be known as Council Meetings.

12.1.2 There must be an Annual Council Meeting. The first Annual Council Meeting must be held within 18 months of the registration of the ECPR, and subsequent Annual Council Meetings must be held at intervals of not more than 15 months. The Annual Council Meeting must:

(a) receive the annual statement of accounts (dually audited or examined where applicable) and the annual report of the Executive Committee; and

(b) consider and, if thought fit, ratify the appointment of the Executive Committee members appointed by the Executive Committee during the year (if any), as required under Clause 15.1.2(b).

12.1.3 Other Council Meetings of the Members of the ECPR may be held at any time.

12.1.4 All Council Meetings must be held in accordance with the following provisions.

12.2 Calling Council Meetings

12.2.1 The Executive Committee:

(a) must call the Annual Council Meeting in accordance with Clause 12.1, and identify it as such in the notice of the meeting; and

(b) may call any other Council Meeting of the Members at any time.

12.2.2 The Executive Committee must, within one month, call a Council Meeting of the Members of the ECPR if:

(a) they receive a request to do so from at least one third of the Members of the ECPR;

(b) the request states the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting, and is authenticated by the Members making the request; and

(c) the request conforms with the requirements set out in the Standing Orders.
12.2.3 If, at the time of any such request, there has not been any Council Meeting of the Members of the ECPR for more than 15 months, then Clause 12.2.2(a) shall have effect as if 5% were substituted for one third.

12.2.4 Any such request may include particulars of a resolution that may properly be proposed, and is intended to be proposed, at the meeting.

12.2.5 A resolution may only properly be proposed if it is lawful, and is, to the satisfaction of the Speaker, not defamatory, frivolous or vexatious.

12.2.6 Any Council Meeting called by the Executive Committee at the request of the Members of the ECPR must be held within three months from the date on which it is called.

12.2.7 If the Executive Committee fails to comply with this obligation to call a Council Meeting at the request of its Members, then the Members who requested the meeting may themselves call a Council Meeting.

12.2.8 A Council Meeting called in this way must be held not more than four months after the date when the Members first requested the meeting.

12.2.9 The ECPR must reimburse any reasonable expenses incurred by the Members calling a Council Meeting by reason of the failure of the Executive Committee to duly call the meeting, but the ECPR shall be entitled to be indemnified by the Executive Committee members who were responsible for such failure.

12.3 Notice of Council Meetings

12.3.1 The Executive Committee, or, as the case may be, the relevant Members of the ECPR, must give at least two months' notice of any Council Meeting (including without limitation any Annual Council Meeting) to all of the Members, and to any member of the Executive Committee who is not a Member.

12.3.2 The notice of any Council Meeting must:

(a) state the time and date of the meeting;

(b) give the address at which the meeting is to take place;

(c) include a provisional agenda which:

(i) gives particulars of any resolution which is to be moved at the meeting (whether proposed by the Executive Committee or by one or more of the Members), and of the general nature of any other business to be dealt with at the meeting;
(ii) if a proposal to alter the constitution of the ECPR is to be considered at the meeting, includes the text of the proposed alteration;

(iii) if a proposal to remove the Speaker or a member of the Executive Committee from office is to be considered at the meeting, includes the text of the proposed resolution and a summary of the reasons for the proposed removal;

(d) in the case of any Annual Council Meeting, include the annual statement of accounts, the trustees' annual report, a report on the work of the ECPR during the year, a report on the ECPR's financial position and prospects and a statement by the ECPR Chair indicating plans and prospects for the succeeding year, or, alternatively, details of where this information may be found on the ECPR's website as permitted under Clause 26; and

(e) invite Members (acting through their Official Representatives) to submit further items for the agenda by a specified time, after which the final agenda shall be notified to the Members at least two weeks before the date of the Council Meeting.

12.3.3 Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted; or that an electronic form of notice was properly addressed and sent, shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Notice shall be deemed to be given 48 hours after it was posted or sent. In the case of a notice posted on a website in accordance with Clause 26, notice shall be deemed to be given on the date on which the notice was posted on the website or, if later, the date on which the Member was notified of the posting on the website.

12.3.4 The proceedings of a meeting shall not be invalidated because a Member who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of accidental omission by the ECPR.

12.4 Chairing of Council Meetings

The Speaker (elected in accordance with Clause 13) shall, if present at the Council Meeting and willing to act, preside as chair of the meeting. If the Speaker is not present and willing to act, the ECPR Chair shall act as Speaker pro tempore and preside as chair of the Council Meeting. If neither the Speaker nor the ECPR Chair are present and willing to act, the Members of the ECPR who are present at a Council Meeting shall elect a chair to preside at the meeting.
12.5  Quorum at Council Meetings

12.5.1 No decision of the Members may be taken at any Council Meeting of the Members of the ECPR unless a quorum is present.

12.5.2 Subject to the following provisions, the quorum for Council Meetings shall be 15% of the Members. A Member represented by an Official Representative in accordance with Clause 12.7 or by proxy in accordance with Clause 12.8, is counted as being present in person.

12.5.3 If the meeting has been called by or at the request of the Members and a quorum is not present within 30 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the meeting is closed.

12.5.4 If the meeting has been called in any other way and a quorum is not present within 30 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the chair of the Council Meeting must either declare the meeting closed or adjourn the meeting. If adjourned, the date, time and place at which the meeting will resume must either be announced by the chair or be notified to the Members at least seven clear days before the date on which it will resume.

12.5.5 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the start time of the adjourned meeting, the meeting shall be closed.

12.5.6 If at any time during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting may discuss issues and make non-binding recommendations to the Executive Committee but may not make any decisions. If decisions are required which must be made by the Members, they shall either be referred to the next Council Meeting or to an electronic vote held in accordance with Clause 11.3.

12.6  Voting at Council Meetings

12.6.1 Any decision other than one falling within Clause 11.4 shall be taken by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting (including proxy votes). Every Member has one vote which shall be exercised by their Official Representative or by a proxy appointed in accordance with Clause 12.8.

12.6.2 A resolution put to the vote of a Council Meeting shall be decided on a show of hands (including proxy votes), unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is duly demanded. A poll may be demanded by the chair of the Council Meeting or by at least 10% of the Members present in person or by proxy at the Council Meeting.

12.6.3 A poll may be taken at the Council Meeting at which it was demanded.

12.6.4 Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the Council Meeting at which the vote is case and the decision of the chair of the Council Meeting shall be final.

12.7 Representation of Members

12.7.1 Each Member of the ECPR shall have one vote in an electronic vote or at a Council Meeting.

12.7.2 Each Member of the ECPR shall, in accordance with its usual decision-making process, appoint one of its Affiliates to act as its Official Representative with the authority to participate in any electronic vote and at any Council Meeting of the ECPR.

12.7.3 The Official Representative is entitled to exercise the same powers as the Member he or she has been appointed to represent. The Official Representative shall be subject to the duty (reproduced in Clause 10.3.1) to exercise such powers in the way he or she decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the ECPR.

12.8 Proxy Voting

12.8.1 Any Member of the ECPR may appoint another person who is either an Affiliate of the Member or the Official Representative of another Member as a proxy to exercise all or any of its rights, to attend, speak and vote at a Council Meeting of the ECPR. Proxies must be appointed by a notice in writing (proxy notice) which:

(a) states the name of the Member appointing the proxy;

(b) identifies the person appointed to be that Member's proxy and the Council Meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;

(c) is signed by or on behalf of the Member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the ECPR may determine; and

(d) is delivered to the ECPR in accordance with the constitution, the Standing Orders and any instructions contained in the notice of the Council Meeting to which they relate.

12.8.2 The ECPR may require proxy notices to be delivered:
(a) in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes; and

(b) by a specified number of clear days before the relevant Council Meeting.

12.8.3 Proxy notices may (but do not have to) specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

12.8.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

(a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the Council Meeting; and

(b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the Council Meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

12.8.5 Proxies shall be subject to the duty to exercise their powers in good faith.

12.8.6 A Member who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a Council Meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the ECPR by or on behalf of that Member. The presence at a Council Meeting of the Official Representative of a Member that has delivered a valid proxy notice revokes the proxy's authority to speak and vote at the Council Meeting on behalf of that Member.

12.8.7 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the ECPR a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the Member by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

12.8.8 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

12.8.9 If a proxy notice is not signed or authenticated by the Member appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence that the person who signed or authenticated it on that Member's behalf had authority to do so.

12.8.10 No Official Representative or Affiliate may vote on behalf of more than two Members at any Council Meeting (whether acting as Official Representative or as proxy).

12.9 Adjournment of Meetings
The Speaker may with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting to another time and/or place. No business may be transacted at an adjourned meeting except business which could properly have been transacted at the original meeting.

12.10 Standing Orders

Subject to the provisions of this Clause 12, Council Meetings shall be conducted in accordance with the Standing Orders adopted by the Members (as amended from time to time).

13. Speaker of the Council

13.1 There shall be a Speaker of the Council who shall:

13.1.1 chair Council Meetings (as outlined in Clause 12.4);

13.1.2 draft and propose revisions to the Standing Orders of Council for approval by the Members;

13.1.3 liaise with the Executive Committee to formulate the agenda for Council Meetings;

13.1.4 serve as the Senior Returning Officer for decisions taken by electronic vote in accordance with Clause 11.3 (including without limitation Executive Committee elections); and 13.1.5 serve as a general liaison point between Members and the Executive Committee.
